Queen Victoria's Birthday.

The seventy-first anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria was noticed in Honolulu on Saturday by the firing of royal salutes at noon from the shore battery at Kakaako and H. B. M. S. Champion. The latter vessel, the American men-of-war and the merchant vessels in port were all gaily dressed with bunting. The Government, diplomatic and consular flags were all flying gaily to what little breeze there was, for it was an exceedingly warm and close
